TO ALL

Instructors of YOUTH,
IN THE ENGLISH TONGUE.

A Serious Consideration of that great Expence of Time (which is commonly taken up in Learning to Read and Write True English; and also, after all this waste, how few or none attain to a competent knowledg therein, without the assistance of the Latin Tongue) first put me upon this Work, which I here present you with; partly to ease your Burden, which I know (if you conscientiously discharge your Duty) to be weighty and troublesome: partly to facilitate and shorten that common way of Teaching, whereby Children are Instructed like Parrots and other docible Animals by Rote and not by Reason, which ought to be the Rule and Standard of all humane Actions; especially such as tend to Literature. And herein it is that what they learn is more owing to a tedious custom and use, than any 'certaine knowledg therein, which is the true Reason why so much time is wasted before they can make any considerable Progress. For prevention of which ill convenience, several Pictures of this kind have been already Publisht, by whoso will take pains judiciously to peruse them, may easily discover that all, or most of them are fitted rather for Confirmation of such as have already learnt, than the Instruction of such as are utterly Ignorant; for which nothing can be made too easie and intelligible. I have therefore (though haply it may wish'd by some that I may incur his Favour who by humbling himself to a mean Audience turn'd Dunce) digested this small Treatise into a method so plain and familiar, that is obvious to the meanest Capacity; and so full and comprehensive, that by it alone, without the help of any other Book, Children of an ordinary Capacity may be taught to read perfectly and distinctly, and to write the English in a very short time.

To all Instructors of Youth, &c.

To all Instructors of Youth, &c.

Also by this, such as are desirous to learn, and have not leisure or opportunity of tending to an a Tutor, may after some small instructions in the first Leaf, be enabled at their vacant Hours to perfect themselves in distinct reading, and true Writing.

If I have herein done any thing advantageous to the Publick, I have my end; but if not, let my hearty Desire of doing so plead my excuse.

Farewel.

Double Consonants.

Let

Letters are divided into Vowels and Consonants. The Vowels are six a e i o u y.

The other Letters are Consonants, to which are added j, v, and y, before a Vowel
(as) just, vain, young. According to the different placing of these Vowels and Consonants divers sounds, or Syllables are produced (as)

After the Learner is well acquainted with the various sounds of the Vowels and Consonants according to their different places : he is next to be taught how to devide whole word into Syllables; in doing of which the Rules following will very much assist him.

Look how many Vowels are in a word, and so many sounds, or Syllables are contained in it, as e-mu-la-ti on, containeth five Syllables, because there are in it five Vowels.

Except you meet with a Diphthong, so called, because two Vowels so placed make but one sound, or Syllable ; and they are seventeen in number namely ai, au, aw, ay, ea, eo, ei, eu, ey, ew, ie, oa, oi, ou, oy, ow, ui ; ten of which may be called proper because they keep the sound of both Vowels, as ai, au, ay, aw, eu, ey, oa, oi, ou, oy. None of which must be divided, but spelt together, as,

4 A Period is marked thus (.) and requires stopping so long as you may be in taking in and letting out your breath twice.

An Interrogative Point is marked thus (?) and is a sign of Question; as Who did it? and requires stopping as long as a Period.

6 A Note of Admiration is marked thus (!) and is used when we admire any person or thing; as, O brave! O strange! and requires stopping as long as a Period.

7. Parenthesis is when some words in a Sentence are parted from the rest, by two semi-circles or crooked strokes, which if left out doth not lessen the Sense, as in this Sentence; I met you (if I mistake not) yesterday. Here if you leave out, if I mistake not, and only say, I met you yesterday, the Sense still remains.

8. Hyphen is marked thus (-) and it is used either for connexion, when two words are joyned together, as, First-born; or Division when a word is parted into Syllables, as humili-ty.

9. Apostrophe is marked thus (') and sheweth that some Letter or Syllable in the word is wanting; abl' for able.

Note, That in all Scripture names, and other words derived from the Hebrew and Greek, c b is pronounced like k; as Character, pronounced Karacter, Malchus, pronounced Malkus; except Rachel, Cherubin, Tychicus: As also words compounded of Arch; as Arch-bishop, Architect: Except Arch-Angel pronounced Ark-Angel.

The Ten Commandments.

I. GOD spake these words and said, I am the Lord thy God, Thou shalt have no other Gods but me.

II. Thou shalt not make to thy self any Graven Image, nor the likeness of any thing that is in Heaven above, or in the Earth beneath, or in the Water under the Earth. Thou shalt not bow down to them; nor worship them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, and visit the sins of the Fathers upon the Children unto the third and fourth Generation of them that hate me, and shew Mercy unto thousands in them that love me and keep my Commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his Name in vain.

IV. Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to do; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; In it thou shalt do no manner of work, Thou, and thy Son, and thy Daughter, thy Man-servant, and thy Maid-servant, thy Cattle, and thy Stranger that is within thy Gates. For in Six days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the Sea and all that in them is, and rested the Seventh day: Wherefore the Lord blessed the Seventh day, and hallowed it.

V. Honour thy Father and thy Mother, that thy days may be long in the Land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt do no Murther.

VII. Thou shalt not commit Adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy Neighbour.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's House, thou shalt not covet thy Neighbour's Wife, nor his Servant, nor his Maid, nor his Ox, nor his Ass, nor any thing that is his.

Grace before Meat.

Glory, Honour and Praise be given to thee O Lord; who dost feed us from our tender Age, and givest Sustenance to every Living Thing, replenish our Hearts with Joy and Gladness; that we always having sufficient, may may be rich and plentiful in good works, thro' Jesus Christ. Amen.

God Save his Church, &c.

Grace after Meat.

Grant, O most merciful Father, that our Hunger and Thirst being satisfied with the moderate use of these thy Gifts, and Sanctified with thy Holy Word; we may both in Body and Mind, be apt and able to do good Works, to the Glory of thy Holy Name. Amen.

God Save his Church, &c.

P S A L. I.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the Counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the Law of the Lord, and in his Law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the Rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season, his leaf also shall not wither, and whatsoever he doth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the Judgment, nor sinners in the Congregation of the righteous.

For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

P S A L. II.

Why do the Heathen rage, and the people imagin a vain thing.

The Kings of the Earth set themselves, and the Rulers take Counsel together against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying :

Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

He that sitteth in the Heavens shall laugh : the Lord shall have them in derision.

Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

Yet have I set my King upon my holy hill of Sion.

I will declare the decree : the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

Ask of me, and I shall give thee the Heathen for thine Inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the Earth for thy possession.

Thou shalt break them with a rod of Iron, thou shalt dash them in pieces like a Potters vessel.

Be wise now therefore, O ye Kings : be instructed, ye Judges of the Earth.

Serve the Lord with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Kiss the Son lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way; when his wrath is kindled but a little? blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

P S A L. I I I.

Lord, how are they increased that trouble me? many are they that rise up against me.

Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God, Selab.

But thou, O Lord, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of my head.

I cried unto the Lord with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill, Selab.

I laid me down and slept: I awaked, for the Lord sustained me.

I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.

Arise, O Lord, save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine Enemies upon the Cheek bone: thou hast broken the Teeth of the Ungodly.

Salvation belongeth unto the Lord: thy blessing is upon thy People, Selab.

P S A L. I V.

Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress, have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selab.

But know that the Lord hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the Lord will hear when I call unto him.

Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still, Selab.

Offer the Sacrifices of Righteousness, and put your trust in the Lord.

There be many that say, who will shew us any good? Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more then in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

I will both lay me down in peace and sleep: for thou Lord, only makest me dwell in safety.

Rules for Spelling and Writing true English.

Consider how many sounds are in your Word, and so many syllables it contains; as Hu-mi-li-a-ti-on contains six syllables, because there are six several sounds in it.

When a word endeth in i or u, you must add e to it, except you and thou.

Y is never written in the middle of a word, except in greek words, as Analysis, Apocrypha.

When a word endeth in y, if you add another syllable to it, you must change y into i, as day, daily: Except in words ending in ing, as dying.

E is added at the end of words to make them long, as bane, bare, to distinguish from ban, bar.

And therefore it is seldom set after a Dipthong, as pain, foul; except in foothe, peace, please, leave, siege.

Also it is seldom written after a double Consonant, except in paste, haste, horse.

When a word endeth in e, if you add ing to it, e must be left out, as hate, hating

In words derived from the Latin and Greek, c is written after f before e or i, but not pronounced,

nounced, as, science, schism, ascend, schedule, & after a Vowel is written afore k as, neck, brick,
but after a Consonant is omitted, as bank, drink.

In words of one Syllable l is doubled, as in Bell, ball, bull, shall, well, full, except a dipthong go before, as bawl, crawl.

If you add to words of one Syllable, one l is lost, as shall, shalt, well, welcome.

Except a Vowel follow, as fall, fall eth, call, cal-led.

Long s must be written in the beginning or middle of a words, as Fustian, Chrystal. Short s in the end of a word, or after long s, as fates, mission.

Words ending in ance, ence, ince, once, unce must be spelt with e, as abundance, presence, since, once, dunce; Except senſe, and dispense.

Pb in words derived from the Latine, and Greek, is put for f, as Philosopher, Philip, Triumph.

N is written at the end of some words though not pronounced, but they are for the most part derived from the Latin as Solemn, Autumn, contemn.

s is not pronounced in Isle, Island.

I Conſonant is commonly pronounced like g
and must be written longer then i Vowel, joy, juice.

U Vowel is always written after q, thus quiet, quench.

All words above one Syllable are written with single l as final, formal, burial.

E and y is written at the end of these words, Abby, Attorney, Barley, Caussey.

E and y sound ay in these words they, obey, convey.

Ei is written for e long in forfeit, either, conceive.

Ea is written for e long in please, ease, &c.

Ie is often written for double e as chief, thief, &c.

Ou sounds like o at the end of words derived from the Latin, as in these, vapour, honour.

Ous like us, at the end of a word, as gracious, copious.

When and where to write the Steps.

A Conima is to be written betwixt words, which depend upon one another, as, Praise ye the Lord, O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever.

A Semi-colon is to be written in the middle of a sentence, as, A fire was kindled in their Company ; the flame burnt up the Wicked.

A Colon is to be written when the full sense is exprest, but yet the sentence not at an end, as, Blessed are they that keep judgment : and he that doth righteousness at all times.

A Period is to be written at the end of a sentence, as, Then believed they his words, they sang his praise.

An Interrogative point is to be written when a question is asked ; as, Who can utter the mighty Acts of the Lord ? Who can shew forth his praise ?

A Parenthesis incloseth some new clause in the middle of a Sentence ; as Know ye not Brethren (for I speak to them that know the Law) how that the Law hath Dominion over a man as long as he liveth.

A Note of Admiration must be written when we wonder at, or admire any person or thing, as Great Sir ! O strange !

A Letter of Attorney to receive Debts.

KNow all men by these presents, that I Giles Manby, of the Parish of St. Clement Danes Drugster, have Assigned, Ordained and Made, and in my stead and place, by these presents put and constitute, my trusty and well beloved Friend, Humphrey Dell, of the Parish aforesaid Gent. to be my true and lawful Attorney, for me and in my Name, and to my use, to ask, sue for, levy, require, recover and receive, of George Ward, of the Parish aforesaid, foresaid, Apothecary; all and every such Debts and Sums of Money, which are now due to me, by any manner of wayes or means whatsoever: Giving and Granting unto my said Attorney, my whole Power, Strength and Authority, in and about the Premises, and upon the Receipt of any such Debts, or Sums of Money aforesaid; Acquittances, or other Discharges, for me and in my Name, to make Seal and Deliver, and all and every such Act and Acts, Thing and Things, Device and Devices, whatsoever in the Law; for the recovery of all, or any such Debts or Sums of Money as aforesaid, for me and in my Name, to do, execute and perform, as fully, largely and amply, in every Respect, to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes, as I my self might or could do, if I were there in mine own Person present, ratifying, allowing, and holding firm and stable, all and whatsoever my said Attorney shall lawfully do, or cause to be done, in or about the Execution of the Premises, by virtue of these Presents. In witness whereof I have hereunto put my Hand and Seal, this Fifth day of May; in the year of our Lord, 1688.

Signed Sealed and Delivered, in the presence of Giles Manby.

A Copy of a Will.

IN the name of God Amen. I A. B. &c. being sick and weak of Body, but of perfect and sound memory, do publish and declare this my last Will and Testament. First, I commend my Soul to the hands of Almighty God, hoping through my Redeemer Jesus Christ, to rise again from the dead; and my Body to the ground, to be decently Interred at the discretion of my Executor here under nominated and appointed.

Item, I give unto my Son ——————

Item, to my Daughter ——————

Item, to my Brother T. B. all other my Goods and Chattels, Lands and Tenements; whom I make and constitute, full and sole Executor of this my last Will and Testaments; revoking all other Testaments or Wills by me formerly made. In witness whereof, I have hereunto put my Hand and Seal, this Ninth day of May,
Anno Dom. 1688.

Signed Sealed and Published in the presence of

*Thomas Manby,
John Doe,
William Roe.*
